Here I am

The Solemnity of the Annunciation was rather overlooked last week, so this is an opportunity to partially redress the situation.

In the Incarnation of the Son of God, we recognise the origins of the Church. Everything began from there.

Every historical realization of the Church and every one of her institutions must be shaped by that primordial wellspring. They must be shaped by Christ, the incarnate Word of God. It is he that we are constantly celebrating: Emmanuel, God-with-us, through whom the saving will of God the Father has been accomplished.

And yet — on the Solemnity of the Annunciation — the divine wellspring flows through a privileged channel: the Virgin Mary.

St Bernard speaks of this using the eloquent image of aquaeductus (cf. Sermo in Nativitate B.V. Mariae: PL 183, 437-448). In celebrating the incarnation of the Son, therefore, we cannot fail to honour his Mother. The Angel’s proclamation was addressed to her; she accepted it, and when she responded from the depths of her heart: “Here I am... let it be done to me according to your word” (Lk 1: 38), at that moment the eternal Word began to exist as a human being in time.

From generation to generation, the wonder evoked by this ineffable mystery never ceases. St Augustine imagines a dialogue between himself and the Angel of the Annunciation, in which he asks: “Tell me, O Angel, why did this happen in Mary?”. The answer, says the Messenger, is contained in the very words of the greeting: “Hail, full of grace” (cf. Sermo 291: 6).

In fact, the Angel, “appearing to her”, does not call her by her earthly name, Mary, but by her divine name, as she has always been and characterised by God: “Full of grace - gratia plena”, and the grace is none other than the love of God; thus, in the end, we can translate this word: “beloved” of God (cf. Lk 1: 28). Origen observes that no such title had ever been given to a human being, and that it is unparalleled in all of Sacred Scripture (cf. In Lucam 6: 7).

It is a title expressed in passive form, but this “passivity” of Mary, who has always been and is for ever “loved” by the Lord, implies her free consent, her personal and original response: in being loved, in receiving the gift of God, Mary is fully active, because she accepts with personal generosity the wave of God’s love poured out upon her. In this too, she is the perfect disciple of her Son, who realises the fullness of his freedom and thus exercises the freedom through obedience to the Father.

In the Second Reading of today’s Mass, we hear the wonderful passage in which the author of the Letter to the Hebrews interprets Psalm 39 in the light of Christ’s Incarnation: “When Christ came into the world, he said: ... ‘Here I am, I have come to do your will, O God’” (Heb 10: 5-7). Before the mystery of these two “Here I am” statements, the “Here I am” of the Son and the “Here I am” of the Mother, each of which is reflected in the other, forming a single Amen to God’s loving will, we are filled with wonder and thanksgiving, and we bow down in adoration.

<th>Six days before the Passover, when the Lord came into the city of Jerusalem, the children ran to meet him; in their hands they carried branches and with a loud voice cried out: Hosanna in the highest! Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy! O gates, lift high your heads; grow higher, ancient doors. Let him enter, the king of glory! Who is this king of glory? He, the Lord of hosts, is the king of glory. Hosanna in the highest! Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy!</th>

Baptism Preparation: the next session is on 12 April; please come to the sacristy at the end of the 10.30am Mass. If you wish to have your child baptised at Holy Cross, you need to attend one of these sessions, usually held on the first Sunday of each month.

HOLY WEEK

SERVICE TIMES FOR HOLY WEEK AND THE PASchal TRIDUUM are all given on the sheets available by the doors. Please take as many as you need, and please do not ring the Priory asking about service times...

A Retreat will be given by Fr Simon Gaine OP. He will preach at the 12.30 and 7.15pm Masses, and give a talk after Tenebrae on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. There will be Adoration before Mass, and Confessions; and a Penitential Service after Mass on Wednesday evening.

PLEASE NOTE the extra opportunities for Confession, and please do consider coming to Tenebrae at 9am on the three days of the Triduum. The name Tenebrae is the Latin word for “darkness” or “shadows”, and has for centuries been applied to the ancient monastic night and early morning services (Matins and Lauds) of the last three days of Holy Week. The service is marked by a chanted reading from the book of Lamentations, the singing of psalms and responsaries, and the gradual extinguishing of candles as the psalms and responsaries are sung. Each service ends with a short litany, the cantors finally lying prostrate before the altar. Books are available so that you can follow and participate in the service.
