Sauce

Author: Ronnie Barker
Publisher: book club associates

- Edition: Fair
- Jacket Condition: Hardcover
- Condition: Book has general wear. Few pages are slightly dirty. This book is meant to delight the eye. it is intended as most culinary sauces do, to tickle the palate. The dictionary describes sauce as a thing mixed , a tinge, a tincture, a touch, a dash, a sprinkling, a seasoning, a soupcon, a smack, and within these pages I have tried to provide all of these by word and picture, but mostly you will find by picture. It is a scrapbook of popular postcard and magazine art of days gone by and so many of the pictures require no explanation, all they need is to be looked at. I do hope you find most of them worth it.

Pick of Punch

Author: Alan Coren
Publisher: Hutchinson & Co

- Edition: Very Good
- Jacket Condition: Hardcover
- Condition: Clearly Orwell was off his trolley. Who would put up with a world like that,? Unless of course they could roll around laughing at it , which in the magnum opus of the Burmese policeman they sinularly fail to do. And that is because one of the most important things that the inept seer neglected to include in his gloomy vision was that whatever else happened in 1984 there would still be Punch.

Except go on producing the only magazine which offered a sensible alternative to worrying about it, that alternative being laughing yourself into a state of unicorn. This book represents a typical selection from the latest barmy year we have to hand. It is pobably the best thing to come out of 1980.

Description: Punch is the stronghold of British Humour, even though other journals, once strictly grave, are now admitting the occasional smile. In a world where there sometimes seems less to laugh at its surprising to find more and more writers and artists learning the trick. To claim that it all suits all tastes would be absurd, lets just say that picking your way through this pick, you'll laugh most of the time.

£ 3.00

£ 5.00

Description: What better way to celebrate getting through 1984 than to curl up with this years selection from Punch. The big brothers and sisters of the worlds funniest magazine are still watching the passing scene and coming up with plenty of reports in words and pictures on the survival of good old human idiocyTurn off the telly while you still can and turn to Alan Coren on her upstairs or Richard Boston offering cold comfort or Michael Bywater dilating on dollt mixtures.

£ 3.00

Description: Dust jacket is slightly discoloured. Punch tries to draw its humour from the comedy of our surroundings and believes that the best definition of a sense of humour is the ability to laugh at oneself. And if this makes you feel that some of us take our humout seriously, well you are dead right. We like to think, that you'll feel a little happier after reading this volume.

£ 6.00

Many of the articles and cartoons are on timeless subjects and I hope you will agree that this is just as well. They will make readers laugh years from now, when most of the immediate absurdities are forgotten.

£ 3.00

Description: Pen inscriptions from previous owner to first fep. when John Major spoke of the classless society, Punch polled the classiest clubs in London to see which of them would have the PM as a member. Condition: Good Jacket Condition: Fair Binding: Hardcover
Description: This is not the pick of 1982's events, comically distilled as the magazine, itself typically attempts to do each week. It is merely the funniest stuff we could think of between May 1981 and May 1982, and is designed, therefore, not to make you think but only to make you laugh. And given the events of 1982 at the time of going to press, I know what I'd rather do.
