A WORLD PREMIERE FAIRYTALE FOR ALL AGES
“TWELVE DANCING PRINCESSES”
Stages Theatre Company
March 6 – 22, 2015

HOPKINS, Minn. – Stages Theatre Company (STC) presents Twelve Dancing Princesses, based on the book by The Brother Grimm, and co-directed by Sandy Boren-Barrett and Ann Marie Omeish. This dance collaboration tells the fairytale of Twelve sisters, all princesses, share a bedroom in which they are locked each night. Each morning, their shoes are found to have been worn through. Whoever discovers the secret of the twelve dancing princesses will be accorded power and riches by the king.

A brand-new musical, produced in collaboration with Escalate Dance Studio, continuing the performance partnership that has brought Owl Moon and The Mitten, in the past two seasons.

He saw the twelve princesses walk to the river’s edge, where they were joined by the twelve handsome princes. Soon the couples started dancing and making merry. It was a magical place with trees of silver, gold and glittering diamonds. The soldier snapped several branches of these magical trees as proof for the king. Hearing the noise, the youngest princess exclaimed, “Something doesn’t seem to be right today. Something very bad will happen!” But the eldest princess declared, “Oh, you worry too much! Download the 12 Dancing Princesses. If you like magic, invisible cloaks, secret gardens, enchanted castles, and glittering dances, then this is the story for you. The Brothers Grimm wrote the most famous version of this mystery tale about how 12 beautiful princesses manage to wear out their dancing shoes every night, even though they never seem to leave their room. The same evening the twelve sisters went again to the ball, and the Star-Gazer again followed them and crossed the lake in Lina’s boat.
