Discussion-Guide Studies (no DVD)
Books (no DVD, no discussion guide)

Notes:
• No study will perfectly meet your group’s needs, and most studies can be adapted to suit your group’s needs. For example, most studies offer more material than there’s time to discuss, or include activities that won’t interest your group, so pick and choose — omit sections that don’t appeal to your group, or add in your own knowledge and study as needed. Depending on the material, you could take two group meetings to discuss one session of the study, or discuss two sessions per week. Use your best judgment, and use the material in the way that best suits your growth in Christlikeness.

• In some cases, reading the original book on which a study is based isn’t necessary; your group can have fruitful discussion and growth just discussing the DVD teaching. Reading the original book deepens the study and enriches lives, to be sure, but it’s not always necessary. Some groups like to read and do “homework” between group meetings; others don’t. Either way is a great way to do a group.

• It’s not always necessary for every group member to buy their own copy of the book or discussion guide — if there’s one copy for the group leader to use for leading discussion, that often works.

• Feel free to disagree with the teacher! Just because we’ve purchased a study doesn’t necessarily mean we agree with everything they teach.

• Most studies are designed for one- to two-hour sessions. Adapt as needed for how much time your group has.

• The church is happy to order materials for you. The church will cover the cost of leader materials (kits, DVDs, leader guides, leader book) and shipping. We ask participants to pay for their books if they’re able. We never want the cost of a book to keep someone from participating in a group, so if someone doesn’t have the money this time, it’s on us, happily.

Books

Reading between group sessions is primary. Group sessions are for discussing what you’ve read at home on your own. Some of these books have some discussion questions built in; some don’t.

- Prose book (139 pages), with ideas for practice at the end of each chapter and a Guide for Groups at the end.

- A few discussion questions provided at the end of the book.

- A few reflection/discussion questions at the end of each chapter, and a few activities for personal growth with each chapter. Some tips for leaders at the back.

- Reader’s Guide at the end with discussion/reflection questions.
- DVD: 21 20-minute teaching segments. See full description under Living the Questions in the DVD Studies section here.

- Foreword and reflections by Nathan’s dad, Richard J. Foster.
- “More than thirty years after his father’s classic book brought them to the masses, Nathan Foster took his own unique path into the spiritual disciplines. As he sought day by day to develop habits that would enable him to live more like Jesus, he encountered problems both universal and personal. Along the way, he found creative new ways to practice the disciplines and discovered that a vital, conversational relationship with God was truly within his grasp. Now he invites you to join him on the journey. You may just find that holy habits are truly possible for all.” (back cover)

- An in-depth look at the inward spiritual disciplines of meditation, prayer, fasting, and study; the outward spiritual disciplines of simplicity, solitude, submission, and service; and the corporate disciplines of confession, worship, guidance, and celebration.

- “What is the one aspect of this broken world that, when you see it, touch it, or get near it, you just can’t stand? What reality is so troubling that it thrusts you off the couch and into action? This is what Bill Hybels refers to as holy discontent: a personal ‘firestorm of frustration’ that, although sparked by that which is terribly wrong, can catalyze fierce determination to set things right.... Hybels invites you to consider the dramatic impact your life will have when you willingly convert the frustration of your holy discontent into fuel for changing the world.” (from back cover of book jacket)

- “Are you bedraggled, beat-up, and burnt-out? Most of us believe in God’s grace -- in theory. But somehow we can’t seem to apply it in our daily lives. We continue to see Him as a small-minded bookkeeper, tallying our failures and successes on a score sheet. Yet God gives us His grace, willingly, no matter what we’ve done. We come to Him as ragamuffins -- dirty, bedraggled, and beat-up. And when we sit at His feet, He smiles upon us, the chosen objects of His ‘furious love.’ Brennan Manning’s now-classic meditation on grace and what it takes to access it -- simply honesty -- has changed thousands of lives.” (back cover)

- Also available: Workbook for Men and Workbook for Women.

- “This is not just a book to read. At the end of each chapter you’ll find an opportunity for soul training, engaging in spiritual practices that reinforce the biblical messages on your mind and heart.” (book jacket)
- Discussion questions and practical soul-training exercises accompany each chapter.

- 255 pages with some reflection/discussion questions at the end of each chapter.
- See also the companion DVD study (listed in DVD section), as well as Renovation of the Heart in Daily Practice (next in this section), which is a very accessible way to get at Willard’s original book.

- 61 short sections from Willard’s Renovation of the Heart (1-2 pages), with short reflections by Jan Johnson, each followed by a “Today’s Experiment” activity.
